VALE BIG BROTHER BILL or (BBB)

I've often said that to have a friend like Bill is to have a loyal friend for life.

Brother Bill had a gentle and loving nature which he made very evident even in his teaching – he's just draw up a chair and talk, and most of our people who didn't quite understand what was being said, but they knew it was important to be quiet when Br B was talking.

I often thought that Br Bill's talks were like a mini-retreat every Tuesday for us. The only big problem was that we were never quite sure when he'd fire a question to one of us.

THE GIFT OF THE ROSARY

Devotional Jewelry, charms and beads hold much power for the person they belong to. The words and memories associated with each item are strong reminders of the spiritual truth it symbolises. This is seen even in the secular society in its selling of "best friends" charms and the passing down of family heirlooms.

But this brings to mind another type of devotional "Jewelry": my rosary beads. I was once told that one should never buy one's own rosary; it should be given and received as a gift. And I must say I do feel a deep connection with the giver of each rosary I pray with. Each of mine comes from a different person close to my heart and was bought in a different country. As I recite the words, the string of beads becomes a story, a relationship, a way to express my love for God and neighbour.

God's Love

Long ago, one silent night,
God revealed His glory bright;
His own image came to man
For salvation's matchless plan.

Jesus, Savior, Shepherd, King —
Lord of all to you we bring Praises, wonder, thanks, and love
For this gift from God above.

MEMORARE

*1. Remember, O most loving Mother Mary, that never was it known in any age
that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help or sought your intercession,
was left unaided.*

*Inspired with confidence, therefore, I hasten to you,
O Mary our Good Mother, to you do I come, before you I stand confident of your love for me.*

Do not, O Mother of Jesus, turn away from my prayers, but graciously hear and grant them. Amen.

* * *

2. Remember, O Mary, our Loving Mother, that no one has ever come to you for help and been left unheard. Moved by such memories, we come to you, our Good Mother, and ask your assistance in our deep need today.

We stand before you mindful of our own weaknesses and failures, but do not, O Mother of the Word Jesus, turn your back on us, but listen favourably to us and grant us what we need to live well in our world today. Amen.
